

The Invitation of the International Conference for 1956 fiscal year

560701-AC

1956 International Conference 第19回

THE ENGLISH STUDY SOCIETY
KOBE UNIVERSITY

Dear Sirs,

We, English Study Society of Kobe University, have the pleasure to inform you of the International Conference. Every one who is interested in the subjects below is cordially invited to attend.

This summer's International Conference is to be held on Sunday, July 1, from 1:30 to 5:00 p.m. at our university on Rokko heights.

The program is as follows:

- (1) Discussion Time 1:30--3:30 p.m.
- Table A Politics; Chairman, Mr. S.Sawada.
"Peaceful Coexistence of two worlds"
a. Recent movements toward peaceful co-existence.
b. Can it lead to true peaceful world?
- Table B Economics; Chairman, Mr. Y.Kato.
"Automation and Industrial Rationalization in Japan"
a. What are the benefits of automation?
b. What problems would arise?
c. What measures should be taken in solving these problems?
- Table C Social Problem; Chairman Mr. T. Matsushita.
"Capital Punishment"
a. Should capital punishment be abolished? Why and How?
- Table D Culture; Chairman Mr. I.Nishiume.
"Literature and Morality"
a. Considerations in general
b. What do you think of the current tendency of Japanese literature?
- Table E General problem; Chairman Mr. T.Tabuchi.
"Religion and Life"
a. How are the religions in the world?
b. Can religion help to show us right way?
- (2) Social Time (Tea and Refreshments) 3:30--4:00 p.m.

We shall be much obliged if you are kind enough to let us know your full name, occupation and a table you choose to take. Hoping that you are generous enough to understand our project and cooperate with us to carry it out successfully, we remain.

Yours truly,
Yoshiaki Takahata,
President of ESS

Please apply to Yoshiaki Takahata,
c/o Tanaka

Y. Takahata
No.3, Shinohara-Kitamachi, 4Chome,
Nada-ku, Kobe