Dear Mr.

How are you getting on these days ? We thank you very much for your kind cooperation at the Debate on June 7.

We are afraid the result might not be satisfactory enough, but we want to continue our effort, observing your kind and instructive advices which you gave us at the occasion.

Let us thank you again for your kindness.

With our best wishes for your prosperity.

Sincerely yours,

Masaaki Nakagawa
President of the E.S.S.
